DOWNINGTOWN PUBLISHING COMPANY
DOWNINGTOWN, PA.

Committee on the Revision of the Manual of 1904, appointed by action of Presbytery at its meeting held, April 14, 1903.

REV. JOHN B. RENDALL, D. D., Stated Clerk, Chairman.

REV. LEWIS W. MUDGE, D. D., the Moderator.

REV. WILLIAM TENTON KRUSE, Permanent Clerk.

Committee on the Revision of the Manual of 1910, appointed by action of Presbytery at its meeting held, June 14, 1910.

REV. WILLIAM TENTON KRUSE, Stated Clerk, Chairman.

REV. WILLIAM M. WOODFIN, the Moderator.

REV. JAMES R. KERR, Permanent Clerk.

PREFATORY NOTE.

This revision is supplemental to the Manual of 1904. All the completed historical data of the Presbytery contained in that Manual is here pre-supposed rather than reproduced. This aims only to be a working Manual. It is based on the conviction that a supplemental revision, as oft as need requires, bringing the information up to date and involving a minimum of expense, will serve the practical uses of the members of the Presbytery more than would an ever enlarging Manual in bulk, issued at longer intervals and involving larger expense. Instead, this contemplates a series of supplemental revisions with such frequency as will keep it practically up to date for the needs of the Presbytery.

THE COMMITTEE.

Officers of the Presbytery.

REV. WM. M. WOODFIN, Moderator, Swarthmore.

REV. WILLIAM TENTON KRUSE, Stated Clerk, Elwyn.

REV. JAMES R. KERR, Permanent Clerk, Darby.

REV. THOMAS R. McDOWELL, Treasurer, Elkview.

GROWTH OF THE PRESBYTERY.

Since the Manual of 1904 seven new churches have been organized, as follows:

Parkesburg First . . . . .	1906	Sharon Hill . . . . .	1908
Radnor of Wayne . . . . .	1906	Holmes . . . . .	1909
Anderson . . . . .	1906	Llanerch . . . . .	1909
Calvary Highland Park 1908

The Penningtonville Church of Atglen having become an independent charge, supporting its own pastor, Christiana Church reverted in 1905 to the roll of its own Presbytery of Westminster.

Summaries of the reports sent to the General Assembly in 1871, just after Presbytery was organized, and in 1904, when the previous manual was prepared, and in 1910, when this revision of the manual was ordered, are herewith given and will show the growth of the Presbytery.

STANDING RULES
OF THE
PRESBYTERY OF CHESTER

September, 1910.

---

I. MEETINGS.

1. There shall be six regular meetings of the Presbytery annually: four stated and two adjourned meetings, as follows:

Presbytery shall meet on the second Tuesday of April, and shall adjourn to meet at Lincoln University on the Thursday after the third Tuesday of April.

Presbytery shall meet on the last Tuesday of September, and shall adjourn to meet at Lincoln University on the second Thursday of November.

There shall be one-day Stated Meetings on the second Tuesday of June and on the last Tuesday of January.

It shall be understood that no business, other than that connected with the Committee on Education or with the reception examination and installation, dissolution and dismission of candidates, licentiates, and ministers, shall be transacted at the adjourned meetings at Lincoln University, except such matters as may be placed on the docket for that meeting at the stated meetings of April and September.

2. Special or Pro re nata meetings may be called, as provided for in the Form of Government, Chapter X., Section 10. The notification for such meeting shall be sent out by the Stated Clerk to all the ministers and sessions of vacant churches; and the party, or parties, at whose instance the meeting is called shall pay to the Stated Clerk the sum of five dollars before the notification is sent out.

Sessions of churches at which the stated meetings are held may arrange for popular services in the evening at their pleasure.

The stated meetings of April and September shall be opened with a sermon.

Sessions will be expected to arrange the business of their churches in accordance with this schedule of meetings and to avoid, except in extraordinary cases, the calling of special meetings of the Presbytery.

II. OFFICERS.

The officers of Presbytery shall be a Moderator, Stated Clerk, Permanent Clerk, Temporary Clerk, and Treasurer.

(1) TERMS OF OFFICERS.

The Moderator shall be chosen at the April and September Stated Meetings, and shall serve for six months. The Temporary Clerk shall be chosen, on the nomination of the Permanent Clerk, at each Stated Meeting. The Stated Clerk, the Permanent Clerk, and the Treasurer shall be elected every five years, at the September Stated Meeting.

(2) DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

1. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to exercise all the functions of the presiding officer of a deliberative body, as specified in Chap. XIX of the Form of Government.

2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk: (a) To give, at least, two weeks' notice of all the regular meetings of the Presbytery through the religious press; (b) to prepare and furnish to the Moderator a docket of all the business to come before the Presbytery; (c) to furnish for the use of the Presbytery the Digest of the General Assembly and the Minutes of the last Assembly and Synod; (d) to keep the roll of the Standing Committees of the Presbytery, and to report to each Stated Meeting the vacancies therein; (e) to supply the church Sessions with blanks for the Narrative and the Statistical Report to the General Assembly, at least one month before the April Stated Meeting; (f) to prepare and send to the General Assembly the annual Statistical Report and such other papers as may be ordered by the Presbytery; (g) to receive the reports required by the Synod from the various Committees and forward the same to that body; (h) to engross the minutes of the Presbytery in the form of a permanent record; (i) to publish such proceedings of the various meetings as may be of general interest; (j) to act as the custodian of the records and papers of the Presbytery; (k) to be its official correspondent, unless otherwise ordered; and (l) to notify the members of Presbytery of the duties assigned to them.

3. The duty of the Permanent Clerk shall be: (a) To make a fair and accurate record of the transactions of the Presbytery at each meeting, and to deliver the same, carefully arranged and engrossed, to the Stated Clerk at the close of the meeting; (b) to file all papers that have been presented to the body, in the order in which they have been read, and properly labeled; and (c) to keep them in convenient form for reference until delivered to the Stated Clerk.

4. The duty of the Temporary Clerk shall be to assist the Permanent Clerk, by whom he shall be nominated.

5. The duty of the Treasurer shall be: (a) To receive all Presbyterial funds; (b) to disburse the same, on the order of the Stated Clerk as directed by the Presbytery or by the Standing Rules; and (c) to present to Presbytery a report of his receipts and disbursements at its September Stated Meeting.

III. ASSESSMENTS.

The Treasurer and the Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Permanent Committee on Assessments, whose duty it shall be: (a) to report to Presbytery, at its September Stated Meeting, an estimate of the amount needed to meet the expenses of the Presbytery, including the assessments of the General Assembly and of the Synod, and the necessary railroad expenses of the Commissioners of the Presbytery to the Synod; and (b) to assess the same upon the churches in proportion to their memberships.

IV. DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The first half hour of the opening session and of each morning session of the Stated Meetings of the Presbytery shall be spent in devotional exercises, and each session shall be opened and closed with prayer.

V. GENERAL RULES.

The General Rules for Judicatories, as appended to the Constitution by the General Assembly, are adopted by this Presbytery.

VI. PERMANENT COMMITTEES.

A Permanent Committee is one which has a continued duty concerning a permanent subject, and continues during the pleasure of the Presbytery.

1. The Presbytery shall appoint Permanent Committees on the causes represented by the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly and of the Synod, also of other interests of the Church, whose duty it shall be:

(a) to keep themselves fully informed as to the condition and operations of the special cause entrusted to them; and (b) to give such information and suggest such plans of effort as may secure the active co-operation of all our ministers and churches in the furtherance of these objects.

2. All communications from the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly and of the Synod, and all applications to them, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. All correspondence between the Presbytery and the said Boards or Committees shall be carried on by the Permanent Committee on said Board or Committee, through its Chairman or Clerk.

3. The Permanent Committees shall consist of five ministers and three ruling elders, except the Committees on Examination, which shall consist of three ministers each.

The Committee on Synodical Home Missions shall consist of eleven ministers and five ruling elders, and a quorum of this committee for the transaction of business shall be the same as a quorum of the Presbytery.

The Committee on Foreign Missions and the Evangelistic Committee shall each consist of nine ministers and five ruling elders; and the Committee on the Presbyterian Brotherhood shall consist of five ruling elders.

4. No member of Presbytery shall be chairman of more than one Permanent Committee. Where one, already Chairman of a Permanent Committee, succeeds to a similar position on another Permanent Committee by the resignation or removal of its incumbent, it shall be his privilege to choose which committee he will serve as Chairman.

VII. DUTIES OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEES.

1. Committee on Business. All Memorials, Over*tures, Complaints, and other papers* requiring the attention of the Presbytery shall be first considered and reported by this Committee. This Committee shall examine the Minutes of the General Assembly and of the Synod and report all matters requiring the attention or action of the Presbytery; and the Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be ex officio members of this Committee.

2. The Executive Commission shall consist of the Moderator, ex officio, who shall be the chairman, and the chairmen of the Permanent Committees on the Boards and Systematic Beneficence, and (a) its duties shall be to co-operate with the Executive Commissions of the General Assembly and of the Synod to secure from all the churches of the Presbytery their fair share of contributions for the work of all the Boards, and (b) shall report its acts at the September Stated Meeting.

3. The Committee on Synodical Home Missions, which shall include Sustentation, Outlook, Vacant Churches and Supplies, shall have the supervision of the entire field of the Presbytery, in the general oversight of churches and the care of mission territory, the organization of new churches and of securing funds for the work of Sustentation. This Committee (a) shall have the care of all the vacant churches and of temporary supplies within the bounds of the Presbytery; (b) shall act as a medium of communication between unemployed ministers and vacant churches; (c) shall consider and report to Presbytery all applications from churches for aid from the Synod's Permanent Committee on Synodical Home Missions, according to the rules governing such applications; (d) shall have authority in the interim of Presbytery to apply for aid to the Committee on Synodical Home Missions for needy churches, and to grant leave to ministers, not members of this Presbytery, to labor within its bounds until the next regular meeting; and (c) shall report all its acts to each Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

4. The Committee on Home Missions shall have under their care, (a) the interests of the Board of Home Missions; (b) shall co-operate with the Board in giving all the churches information of the vast and growing field and arousing their interest; and (c) in securing liberal offerings every year to this cause. This Committee shall report at the Stated September Meeting.

5. The Committee on Foreign Missions shall give all diligence (a) to cultivate a missionary spirit among the people of our congregations by co-operating with the Board of Foreign Missions and the Missionary Societies within our own bounds in the spreading of missionary literature and information; and (b) to secure regular and adequate contributions from each of our churches. This Committee shall report at the September Stated Meeting.

6. The Committee on Education shall (a) exercise a pastoral care over the candidates for the ministry under the care of the Presbytery; (b) hold correspondence with them; (c) receive reports of their standing and progress from their instructors and annually communicate the same to the Presbytery; (d) assign the written parts of trial to candidates for licensure or ordination; and (e) in case of urgent necessity demanding action before Presbytery meets in regular session, recommend candidates, already under the care of Presbytery, for aid to the Board. It shall be in order for this Committee to report at any Regular Meeting.

7. The Committee on Publication and Sabbath-School Work shall (a) gather information in regard to the plans, aims and work of that Board; (b) collect, as far as possible, accurate and reliable statistics concerning the Sabbath-School work within the bounds of the Presbytery;

(c) encourage the establishment of Sabbath-Schools in destitute places; and (d) report the results of its labors to the June Stated Meeting.

8. The Committee on Church Erection shall (a) receive all applications from congregations desiring aid from the Board of Church Erection; (b) carefully examine into the same; (c) recommend to the Presbytery such amount as it may determine to be necessary; (d) give all proper encouragement and aid to the erection of manses as well as church edifices, where they do not exist; and (e) report to Presbytery at its June Stated Meeting.

9. The Committee on Ministerial Relief shall (a) carefully consider all applications of aged and disabled ministers and their needy widows and children; (b) recommend to the Presbytery such amounts of money as, in its judgment, may be necessary; and (c) report to Presbytery at its June Stated Meeting.

10. The Committee on Freedmen shall (a) gather and present to the Presbytery such facts as may be of interest in regard to the colored people of the country, together with their educational and religious necessities; and (b) present the same to the Presbytery at its September Stated Meeting.

11. The Committee on Aid for Colleges shall (a) examine the reports of the College Board; (b) make note of its progress and of the literary institutions under its fostering care; and (c) report the same, together with such facts in regard to the necessities, claims and encouragements of this work as may be of interest, to Presbytery, at its January Stated Meeting.

12. The Committee on Systematic Beneficence shall (a) make an annual survey of the benevolence of the churches within our bounds; (b) prepare such a summary of the contributions of the churches connected with the Presbytery as shall enable it to see what is being done for the Boards of the Church; (c) suggest any means which, in their judgment, will increase the liberality of the churches; and (d) report to Presbytery at its January Stated Meeting.

13. The Committee on Morals, Temperance and the Sabbath shall (a) keep an outlook upon and encourage all movements for the elevation of morals, the suppression of the liquor traffic, and the observance of the Sabbath; and (b) shall report the condition and progress of the work with such recommendations as it may deem best to the Presbytery at its January Stated Meeting.

14. The Committee on Young People's Societies shall (a) have in charge the interests of the various organizations of young people; and (b) report to Presbytery thereon at its April Stated Meeting.

15. The Historical Committee shall procure a book and record therein such items of interest as the following: (a) An account of church organizations and dissolutions; (b) ordination, enrollment and installation of ministers, dissolution of pastoral relations and dismissal of ministers to other bodies; (c) biographical sketches of such members as may die while members of this Presbytery; (d) such other historical information as may be calculated, in their judgment or in that of the Presbytery, to throw light on the history of the Church in this locality; (e) a compact history of Presbyterianism within our bounds for the current year, including revivals of religion, the origin and progress of literary institutions, great moral and religious movements, removals by death from the ministry or eldership, and (f) whatever else may be essential to a complete record. The report shall be presented to Presbytery, before being entered in the book, at its January Stated Meeting.

16. The Evangelistic Committee shall (b) have the care and direction of the Evangelistic activities of the Presbytery; and (b) shall seek in all ways to foster and serve this spirit among the churches. This Committee may report at any Stated Meeting.

17. The Committee on Brotherhood shall (a) have charge of and stimulate Christian work among men; (b) organize and encourage Brotherhoods in the churches where practicable; and in all ways secure the training of the men of the churches in Christian service; and (c) shall report at the January Stated Meeting.

18. Narrative. This Committee shall consist of three ministers, each of whom shall serve for three years, the one holding senior membership in the committee to be the chairman for that year, one new member to be appointed each year at the September Stated Meeting. Its duties shall be (a) to prepare for the April Stated Meeting a Narrative for the General Assembly based on the Narrative of the churches, as provided for in Rule XIV, Section 2, together with a general and comparative study of the spiritual conditions within the Presbytery; (b) this Committee may report to the September Stated Meeting such additional matter as it may deem necessary to make a complete Narrative to Synod; and (c) each retiring Chairman shall transfer to his successor all reports and records relating to the work of the Committee in order that comparisons may be made and conditions studied with care and thoroughness from year to year.

19. The Committee on Vacancies in the Permanent Committees, consisting of the Moderator, the Stated and the Permanent Clerks, shall nominate to the Presbytery, at each Stated Meeting, such members of the body as, in their judgment, are best qualified to fill any vacancies that may exist in any of the above-named Committees.

VIII. STANDING COMMITTEES.

Standing Committees are such as have a temporary duty to a standing item of business. They are discharged by the action of Presbytery on their final report. The following shall be appointed as provided for by the Dockets:

1. ARRANGEMENTS AND DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.—To consist of the Session of the church in which the Presbytery meets. This Committee shall make all needful arrangements for the entertainment of the members of the Presbytery, its hours of sessions, devotional exercises and popular meetings, subject to the approval of the Presbytery.

2. JUDICIAL.—To consist of three ministers and two ruling elders, to which shall be referred all papers of a judicial character.

3. BILLS AND OVERTURES.—To consist of three ministers and two ruling elders, to whom shall be referred all overtures, memorials and references, other than judicial, sent to Presbytery.

4. RECORDS OF SESSIONS.—(1) Sessional records shall be examined by a Standing Committee of Presbytery composed of six ministers and six ruling elders, with the assistance of more in each class in case of temporary need.

(2) This Committee shall be appointed by the Moderator with consent of Presbytery, as follows: Two ministers annually at the September Stated Meeting to serve for three years, except that at the first appointment two shall be appointed for one year, two for two years, and two for three years. Ruling elders shall be appointed at each Stated Meeting of Presbytery whereat sessional records are to be examined, to serve until their successors are appointed; additional men shall be appointed pro tem. at any meeting on request of the Standing Committee.

(3) The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in the latest edition approved by the General Assembly, shall be the Committee's standard for the examination of Sessional Records.

(4) In addition to noting exceptions the Committee shall considerably seek to stimulate the practice by sessions of keeping a fair record of their proceedings correctly recorded, comprehensive, accurate and neat.

(5) Before the close of the meeting at which Sessional Records are submitted the Committee shall report to Presbytery its findings in each case, and shall suitably inscribe upon every copy the action of Presbytery relating thereto, in order that the Moderator may conveniently add his signature in attestation thereof.

(6) The standing members may adopt regulations for the performance of the Committee's duties, subject to the approval of Presbytery.

5. AUDITORS.—To consist of three ruling elders, to be appointed at the September Stated Meeting, whose duty it shall be (a) to examine the Treasurer's report and vouchers and (b) make written report thereon to Presbytery.

6. LEAVE OF ABSENCE.—To consist of two ministers and one ruling elder. All communications in regard to the absence of members of the Presbytery shall be referred to this Committee, who shall (a) make record thereof; (b) hear the case of all members who find it necessary to leave the body before its final adjournment and act thereon; and (c) make a full and written report at the close of the final session of the Presbytery.

IX. COMMITTEES ON EXAMINATIONS.

There shall be a Committee appointed for the examination of candidates for the ministry, for licensure and ordination, on each of the following parts of trial:

1. Experimental religion and motives for seeking the office of the ministry.
2. Languages.

3. Arts, sciences and philosophy.
4. Theology.
5. Church History.
6. Sacraments.
7. Church Government.
8. English Bible.

X. CANDIDATES AND THEIR EXAMINATIONS.

1. Candidates for the ministry, as well as licentiates under the care of the Presbytery, shall report annually, through the Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Education, to the Presbytery.

2. The written parts of trial assigned to candidates for the ministry, except the sermon, shall be referred to the joint Committees on Languages, and, Arts and Sciences for examination. Examinations in languages, arts, sciences and philosophy shall be conducted before the respective Committees on these branches, and the other examinations, unless otherwise ordered before the Presbytery.

XI. COMMISSIONERS.

1. On the afternoon of the first day of the April Stated Meeting the Commissioners to the General Assembly shall be elected. They shall report to the Presbytery, in person or in writing, at its June Stated Meeting. The alternate having received the highest number of votes shall be the alternate first in order to any principal who may be unable to fulfil his appointment.

shall have been exhausted. Any principal and alternate

2. The delegates to the Synod shall be elected on the afternoon of the first day of the September Stated Meeting, and shall report to Presbytery, in person or in writing, at its January Stated Meeting. The Presbytery shall pay the expenses of its Commissioners only to the extent of the lowest railroad fare to and from the place of meeting, plus one dollar en route in case of additional expenses.

3. For the purpose of the election of delegates to Synod, an alphabetical roll of the Presbytery shall be prepared. The said roll shall consist of the names of ministers who are engaged in ministerial work within our own bounds and have been members of the Presbytery at least one year. The first six names or such ratio as shall at any time exist shall be principals, and the second six alternates, and so on down the roll until this roll shall have been exhausted. Any principal and alternate may at their convenience exchange turns; and any alternate who shall take the place of a principal shall be regarded as having filled his own term. When the roll is exhausted a new roll shall be made of Presbytery as it shall then consist. The same plan shall be followed for elder delegates, taking one elder from a church or from the two churches of a joint pastorate on the alphabetical roll of churches. Whenever the interests of the Presbytery or considerations of courtesy shall make it desirable to send any special delegates, nothing in this plan shall militate against such special election.

XII. CHURCH SESSIONS.

1. At the September Stated Meeting, each church Session shall present its records for review to the Committee appointed by the Presbytery for the purpose.

2. Each church Session shall prepare the narrative of the state of religion within its bounds, on the blank sent out by the Stated Clerk, and forward the same to the Committee on Narrative, at least two weeks before the April Stated Meeting, and, when there is additional matter to be added, two weeks before the September Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

3. Each church Session shall promptly fill the various columns in the blank statistical report sent out by the Stated Clerk, and return the same to him, at least one week before the April Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

XIII. VACANT CHURCHES.

1. Whenever a church becomes vacant it falls under the immediate care of the Committee on Synodical Home Missions, and so continues until brought regularly under the charge of an individual pastor; and the Committee shall proceed immediately to take such order in its behalf as its circumstances may require.

2. The appointment of a minister of the Presbytery as the Moderator of the Session of a vacant church shall in no case be omitted. Said Moderator may be nominated by the Session.

3. The Session of a vacant church may ask leave of the Presbytery to supply its own pulpit; and when said leave is obtained it shall, unless renewed, expire at the next Stated Meeting. In the absence of such leave the Session shall, in general, apply for supplies for its pulpit to the Committee on Synodical Home Missions.

4. The Sessions of vacant churches may properly apply for the aid of the Presbytery, through the Committee on Synodical Home Missions, in obtaining candidates for the pastorate, and they should by all means do it when the vacancy has been of long continuance.

5. No vacant church shall open its pulpit to a stranger as a candidate, and especially not to one not in our ecclesiastical connection, without consultation with the the Committee on Synodical Home Missions.

6. When a church has been long vacant, the Presbytery shall visit it, by a Committee, for the purpose of inquiry concerning its welfare and prospects, and of making such suggestions and giving such counsel as the case may require.

7. If it become known to Presbytery that dangerous difficulties exist in any vacant church, which require its interposition, it shall appoint a commission, with the full power of the Presbytery, to adopt whatever measures may be required for the peace, purity and prosperity of the church.

XIV. AMENDMENTS.

Any of these Standing Rules may be suspended, at any meeting, by a two-thirds vote; or may be amended or rescinded by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any Stated Meeting, provided that notice of such intended change has been given at a previous Stated Meeting.
